

Normal operations gradually resume: Restaurants on the Vitra Campus open to visitors

As of Monday, 11 May 2020, the Vitra Campus and Vitra Design Museum are once again accessible to visitors on a daily basis from 12 to 5 pm. Now the two campus restaurants are also opening their doors to the public step by step: From Monday, 18 May 2020, the VitraHaus Café will offer table service with hot meals. The Depot Deli is open to visitors starting on Wednesday, 20 May, Wednesdays to Sundays from 10 am to 3 pm with a menu of hot and cold Italian dishes. Prior to that date, a selection of beverages and snacks will be available as a take-away service. Over the coming weeks, the activities and opening hours on the Vitra Campus will be successively expanded as normal operations are gradually resumed. Comprehensive safety and hygiene concepts have been implemented to protect both visitors and employees. Information about opening hours, guided architectural tours and other matters related to the progressive reopening of the Vitra Campus and Vitra Design Museum, along with on-site events, is updated daily at www.design-museum.de/news and www.vitra.com/campus.

Architecture tours

From 15 May 2020, architectural tours in German will be offered at 1:30 pm on Fridays, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays until further notice. Tours begin at the Vitra Design Museum (building by Frank Gehry). Maximum number of participants is 4, masks required.

VitraHaus

The VitraHaus, Vitra's flagship store in Weil am Rhein, is currently undergoing minor renovations on the occasion of its ten-year anniversary. It will reopen in summer 2020 with a new interior concept. The ground floor has already been accessible to visitors since 11 May 2020.

Exhibitions

The exhibitions «Home Stories: 100 Years, 20 Visionary Interiors» (until 28 February 2021) in the Vitra Design Museum, «Gae Aulenti: A Creative Universe» (until 18 April 2021) in the Vitra Schaudapot, and «Typology: An Ongoing Study of Everyday Items» (until 24 January 2021) in the Vitra Design Museum Gallery are being extended into the year 2021.
